Our Commitment to You

Caring, Compassionate, Competitively Priced The Obvious Choice

Shalom Funeral Service was born over a decade ago at the request of a number of prominent Rabbis in Denver. These Rabbis felt that while there were mortuaries that served the Denver Jewish community, none were truly focused on Jewish religious tradition and practices. Jewish tradition cherishes life. Nevertheless, Judaism is concerned about the honor and respect due to the deceased. (Kavod Ha-met) Jewish tradition is also vitally concerned for the mental, emotional and spiritual well being of the living and the requirement of extending comfort to them. Shalom was created to fulfill those needs. We understand that families are very vulnerable at the time of grief and we dedicate ourselves to honorably represent the needs of your family during this very difficult time.

We invite you to visit our modern facilities, meet our staff, and compare. Our Taharah and Shomer facilities, located at 1091 South Colorado Boulevard, have been inspected and received Rabbinical Approval. We offer a full range of options to the Jewish families we are privileged to serve and we believe we offer the ideal combination of economy and quality. We are honored to be members of the Jewish Funeral Directors of America and to meet their high standards. We continue to be proud affiliates of Horan and McConaty Funeral Service, Colorado's only Funeral Service Recipient of the Colorado Ethics in Business Award. Please contact us for further information.

We work closely with county departments of human services, victim's and worker's compensation departments, and other potential sources of funding. We can make suggestions to keep your costs low. Still, we understand that there are those who need a payment plan or a cost reduction in order for their needs to be met, and we are here to help. No one has ever been turned away for a lack of money.

Bereavement Support

Mental health experts agree that our society today does a generally poor job in addressing the needs of people who grieve. People sometimes seem to forget that the death of someone loved can be one of life's most traumatic experiences. As the area's only firm to offer full-time bereavement support, we are here to help. We provide you with a customized package of educational and inspirational materials. We maintain one of the area's leading bereavement resource centers, the HeartLight Center. Our Bereavement Support Coordinator provides assistance to people in need as well as information about support groups, books, videos, pamphlets, and other materials designed to assist children, adolescents, and adults. There are no charges for any of these services.

Pre-Planning Assistance

We provide free assistance with pre-planning. You have the option of locking in today's prices and funding your plan or simply placing your wishes on file and allowing costs to be paid at the time of need. Our Pre-Planning Department can be reached directly at 303.504.6266.
